An immense amount of property of one sort and another is appropriated to this purpose, and the whole institution is so organized that the more important members of the clerical body hold positions of the highest public dignity and authority, while the great majority are in a position of perfect legal independence so long as they discherge definite legal obligations which are ascertained and enforced when the occasion requires by the ordinary courts of law.

RADIKELTOWN, PRESTON CO., August 10.

The Dimecrats of this county ar in a terribel dilemy. We have bin tryin to git the Greenbackers to fuse with us on the county ticket, but they won't do it. We wood giv them all the offises and in that way git their support, but it wood be een amost supporting the Radikels. The Radikels haveverything their own way here. Sometimes they beat us 1,000 votes, and the consekence is we are so dishartened that we don't care about nominatin a ticket to be beat and slawtered up. I hav spent nearly all my means in tryin to git into offis; but the Radikels will send out reports about me, and when elexishun day cums I am always beat. They say all the mean things about me they kin. I git mad, but I can't doo ennything with them. They are sheelded in all their nefarouse work by the people. In the last elexishun they told everybody I was a soft muny man, and wanted a big supply of greenbake. I had fold something to my most intimate friends, and they made capitul agenst me on that.
